(a) Camp SS personnel varied in number between 190 and 210. They were all personnel of my staff and were the only persons allowed inside into the camp itself.

(b) The number of german guard personnel in Apr 1945 was approximately 3000. They were all SS personnel & wore SS uniform.

(c) These SS personnel mentioned in (b) and (a) above were all members of the Waffen SS and not the Allgemeinen SS.

(d) The SS. Guard personnel did not belong to any special SS. units but the guard unit (WACHSTURMBANN) was known as SS. TOTENKOPF WACHSTURMBANN.

2. In Sachsenhausen there were no civilian personnel employed.

3. I know that all personnel who were employed as guards or on the staff of concentration camps were members of the Waffen SS. and NOT the Allgemeinen SS. This applied to all concentration camps.
